TWO INDICTMENTS.

BARBERS CHIEF DEPUTY IS INVOLVED.

Ernest Mayrisch and Auditor Whidden Must Explain Their Actions.

The Grand Jurors believe that they have fathomed the mystery of the missing money in the Tax Collector's office, and as a result of the disclosures made yesterday two indictments will probably follow.

Several witnesses were called before the jurors yesterday, and they gave some interesting evidence concerning the shortage in the county's cash which has caused so much comment for weeks. The investigation is practically concluded, and the Grand Jury is now waiting for the report of Expert Snow, who has been at work on the tax stubs in Collector Barber's office.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of the money has practically been cleared away. The District Attorney has presented evidence which seems to give the key to the situation. There is only one witness missing thus far, and the officers are making every effort to find the man. His name is Brunson, and he was the night watchman at the Courthouse at the time the assessment books are alleged to have been mutilated. The officers seem to think that he may be able to throw some additional light on the case so they are searching for him. The last heard of the young man he was working near Stockton, and a subpoena has been sent to Sheriff Cunningham of San Joaquin county for service.

The two young men under suspicion in connection with the Courthouse frauds are Ernest Mayrisch, Chief Deputy under County Tax Collector Barber and son-in-law of the late Detective Len Harris, and County Auditor Myron Whidden. Mayrisch must answer for the missing $600, and Whidden must account for the missing $483. Mayrisch now finds himself in a very uncomfortable position. The $600 is traced directly to his door, and he only has one explanation to make. He says that he knew his cash was short and that he did not say anything about it. He denies, however, that he stole the money. County Tax Collector Barber is entirely clear of the scandal. He has been imposed upon by his friends, and has been caused much trouble by the man whom he trusted above all in his office.

"I have had very little to say in this matter," said Tax Collector Barber today, "for the reason that the Grand Jury has had the matter in hand and I did not feel disposed to discuss the subject in public. This missing $600 strikes very near home and perhaps some explanation is due from me. When I went into office on January 1st of this year I made Ernest Mayrisch of Alameda my chief deputy. He and I collected all the cash for taxes, and no one else handled the money. When the time for settlement came around I found that I was $600 short in my cash. I could not understand the matter, because I had balanced my cash each night and found that it agreed with the tax stubs. Mayrisch was very much interested in the matter, and tried to assist me in finding the shortage. At that time I had no clew to the missing money, so I was forced to pay $600 to the county out of my own pocket.

"One day I took Mayrisch into my private office and asked him what he thought had become of the missing money. He suggested to me that somebody might have slipped into the office and stolen the money. I told him that such a proposition was ridiculous. Then he came out with the story. He told me that several times he found the cash short, but he kept it to himself. He carried this shortage right along and never told me a word about it. He even assisted me to find the shortage and never made the least suggestion about his actions. As soon as I heard his story I laid the matter before the District Attorney and the Grand Jury.

"Mayrisch has paid me the $600 and I have put the money in bank on special deposit and will await the action of the Grand Jury.

"I do not propose to shield anybody in this matter. It seems to me that I am the one who has been injured by these frauds. I am not making any charges, but I propose to state the facts. I do not know how the $600 was taken, but I can tell you how it might have been taken. When we collect taxes we take the stub off the receipt handed to us and place it on file. At night the cash is compared with the stubs on hand.

The next day these stubs are gone over again, and the taxes are marked paid on the books. Now, a cashier who wanted to steal money could do it very easily. For instance, he would receive $100 for taxes and sign the receipts. He would put the money in his pocket and hide the stubs. At night the stubs on hand would balance with the cash. The next day this same man could slip the stubs he held out into the proper package, and they would then be duly marked up on the books. When I came to make my final settlement, however, I would find that my cash was short. In the case of Mayrisch there was no mutilation of the books. He simply says that his cash was short, but that he did not take the money."

"Are you going to discharge Mayrisch?"

"I know what I am going to do when this investigation is over," observed Mr. Barber, "but I do not care to state my plans at this time. I will wait until the Grand Jury reports before I will make any move in the case."

Deputy Mayrisch is still at work in the Tax Collector's office, but he does not handle any cash. "I realize that I made a mistake in not reporting the shortage to Mr. Barber when it occurred," said he today. "I carried the shortage along and did not say anything about it. In my own defense I declare that I did not take the money. It simply disappeared, and I have not the least idea what became of it. It is true that I made a serious mistake. I am only going to remain with Mr. Barber until this matter is disposed of; then I shall return to Alameda. I am very sorry this thing has occurred."

The missing $483 is traced direct to Auditor Whidden, and as new facts have been brought out he must make a more satisfactory explanation to the Grand Jury.

University Notes.

Professor Edwards is the owner of a very fine instantaneous photograph of a salmon leaping the falls in Fel river. The falls are over 12 feet high and the pool from which the fish leaps is fully 20 feet below the ledge.

A new company has been organized in connection with the U. C., which is to be known as Company G. This company is to be equipped with sabers and will be given the dismounted cavalry drill.

Owing to the scarcity of lockers in the gymnasium, Professor McGee has asked all upper class men to abdicate in favor of the lower class men.

The Medical College Alumni have voted in favor of Mayor Sutro's proposition concerning the location of the Affiliated colleges.

Col. G. H. Mendell says the cost of opening the canal at Alameda and the building of necessary bridges will cost about $450,000.

DOG STEALERS.

THEY STEAL OVER FIFTY VALUABLE DOGS.

The Lawn Fete Last Evening a Social and Financial Success.

A representative of the GAZETTE had his attention called to the constant depletion of valuable dogs in Berkeley, who did not take their departure by the poisonous route. Complaint has been made to the poundmaster of the sudden disappearance of valuable dogs within the past month. On an examination into the matter it has become almost a known fact that an organized body exists for the purpose of stealing valuable dogs, transferring them to another section of the country and then selling them.

The Association is very much after that one discovered some months ago for disposing of stolen bicycles. Up to date there has been about fifty complaints lodged with the town officers in relation to missing valuable canines.

When a dog of this kind has gone beyond his home bounds the owner naturally thinks that the pound man has been zealous in his duty and has carried the animal to the corporation yard. On going there the owner cannot find his pet and in his anger unjustly accuses the town officer of disposing of the dog and placing the proceeds in his pocket. These unjust accusations have caused the poundmaster and his assistant to look into the matter for a solution and the solving of the problem is as above.

Public attention is called to this matter so that if parties are seen leaving the town with dogs in their charge either on the steam or electric cars or in any other way or taking the animals away they may be reported to the town marshal or poundmaster.

Came Too Late.

One of the most peculiarly sad features connected with the recent death of Mrs. K. B. Fisher, the English teacher lately connected with the Oakland High School, comes to us in the form of a telegram from her younger daughter, Grace, who is in New York studying for the stage. For years it has been the fondest hope of Mrs. Fisher and the greatest desire of her daughter that the latter make a name for herself in the dramatic profession. Patiently Miss Fisher has devoted her whole time to study, and the reward came just before her mother's death. She has secured an engagement to play with Modjeska, the great Shakespearean actress. The telegram announcing her good fortune arrived at midnight, just as Mrs. Fisher was dying. As she was unconscious, its contents could not be told her.

Miss Fisher has the united sympathy and congratulations of her many friends for her terrible bereavement and deserved good fortune.

Church Social.

A social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society will be given to-night in the Presbyterian church, West Berkeley, commencing at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme has been prepared; admission 10 cents; refreshments.

O. A. Putzker will enter the one-mile handicap bicycle race at the Oakland Trotting Park tomorrow afternoon. The races begin at 1:30 o'clock.

A. S. Ruch has a contract for the building of a residence to cost $6000 at the corner of Union and Chester streets.

A. V. Stubenrauch has gone to Sacramento as an expert at the State Fair to test the quality of milk at the competitive milk contest there.

FROM the evidence that has been given before the Railroad Commissioners during the past ten days by the officers of the Southern Pacific Company, it would seem as though Mr. Huntington was upon the verge of bankruptcy; that instead of the poor farmer being robbed it is the Southern Pacific Company that has been robbed and plundered by the people, until now they do not know which way to turn to keep from inevitable ruin. Their last hope is to throw themselves upon the mercy of the Railroad Commissioners, who, while elected to serve the people, have always heretofore and we have every reason to believe will now be merciful to the Railroad Company in order that it may not lose some of its ill-gotten millions.

Clarence Slocum, a young painter who lives with his parents at Emeryville, tried to commit suicide on the last boat from San Francisco last night, by jumping into the bay when opposite Goat Island. A boat was lowered and the young man was rescued. He will be kept in jail until he agrees to live on and not court death, but wait until it comes to him.

A farewell reception was given on Wednesday evening to Rev. Dr. Davidson, the missionary to Japan, who has been on a visit to his friends in Berkeley during the last two months. He is presiding elder of the Tokio district, and will return to his charge on the steamer Coptic, sailing September 12th.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. H. N. Marquand has recovered her health. We received our information concerning her illness from the Advocate office, on the same day that the office boy who is now editing the paper took his $6 a week job.

Four young Japanese who dined in a Chinese restaurant at San Francisco on Wednesday evening were poisoned. One man has died and the doctors think that two more out of the three left will also die. The matter has created much excitement.

Rabbi Voorsanger, professor of the Semetic languages and literature at the University of California, will enter upon his work at the University at once, having arranged to meet all his classes for the first recitations next Tuesday.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Berkeley have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. George W. Haight; Secretary, Mrs. A. F. Bangs; Treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Wilcox.

A young man at Lorin this morning, whose name the reporter did not catch, got thrown from his bicycle and while not sustaining any great injury to himself was out one of his wheels, which was badly damaged.

Messrs. D. L. Randolph, Captain T. D. Poole and J. A. Durkee went over to Miner's ranch yesterday to inspect the oil grounds, recently described in the GAZETTE.

Ferdinand Ciprico was sentenced to two years in San Quentin by Judge Morrow yesterday, he having been found guilty of a "conspiracy to defraud the Government."

The special train bearing the San Francisco parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, will pass through West Berkeley tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Professor Royce will deliver his last lecture this evening to the members of the Philosophical Union, and a few invited friends.

Professor David Star Jordan of the Stanford University will lecture on Altruism at the Trinity M. E. church this evening.

Mrs. Warring Wilkinson and Miss Wilkinson are visiting in Seattle.

THE NEW FERRY.

A LOCAL COMPANY TO BE INCORPORATED.

The Scheme is Now Assuming Such Shape That the Ferry Service is Certain.

The late discussions both in the West Berkeley Progressive Club and in the highways and byways will soon bring the matter in concrete form. Various methods of having quick connection with San Francisco have been suggested, and two or three seem to meet with public favor. While the Progressive Club can push matters forward with a considerable celerity it has been found, after much thought, that it will be the better way to incorporate a company which can then solicit subscriptions for a ferry with an electric road as an adjunct. One will be as necessary as the other, and the two will have to go hand in hand. With this idea of an incorporation thoroughly settled upon, some of the principal property owners and business men of West Berkeley have formulated the incorporated company business and will soon make it a fact.

It is also intended that the Progressive Club shall extend its influence to push the whole matter forward, and will continue its aid until the newly formed company shall be enabled to carry out the ideas projected independently of any special assistance.

Until matters get a little formulated the interested managers think it best not to fully develop all of their plans. This is a wide course from the fact that the principal party to be effected by an enterprise of this kind is the railroad company, who now has a monopoly of this good paying business. Naturally it would endeavor to crush anything appearing at all like a competition in its infancy, knowing from experience that the greatest weakness of its foe is immediately after its birth.

Naturally where there is so much smoke there is some fire which causes it and Berkeley cannot too soon see this burning pile, if it may be so called, come out in a full blaze.

On this subject alone the next meeting of the Progressive Club will be an interesting one.

In the matter of having more room for the Club to meet in we have incidentally learned that a good sized hall has been tendered to the club for its especial use at a nominal rate. At the rate of increase in the roll a larger room to meet in is certainly necessary.

The Right Ring.

The Manufacturers' and Producers' Association have again been confronted with the unpleasant sight of an institution, which is supported to a great extent by the State, sending East for its supplies. The following letter should bring the offending parties to their senses:

To the Board of Regents of the University of California, Berkeley, Cal.—GENTLEMEN: We are informed that you have recently ordered or are about to order, a supply of caps for the university of an Eastern make, and we would, therefore, call your attention to the fact that these can be and are manufactured in California, equal in quality and price.

Such being the case, this association is of the opinion that the caps worn by the pupils of any California school, and especially one supported more or less by the State government, should be of California manufacture.

If this order has been given, we hope you will countermand it, and if it has not been given, we trust that you will see the matter in the right light and place the same with the home manufacturer.

Kindly favor me with a reply at an early date, and oblige yours truly, L. R. MEAD, Secretary.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER, 6 1895

The annual convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers is now in session at Philadelphia, Pa.

John W. Mackay is having a twenty-one story building erected at New York City, at a cost of $2,500,000.

It is estimated that there will be 400 new students enrolled at Palo Alto this year.

A large shipment of smelts caught near Capitola has been received at San Francisco.

CALIFORNIA pears and peaches meet with quick sales in London. The shipments this season have been very successful.

The Defender and Valkyrie are all ready for the sailing match tomorrow. In betting, the American boat has the preference.

SOME ladies dressed in bloomers visited a church at Sebastopol recently. The minister gave them a scoring for doing so.

PRESIDENT RICKARD of the Board of Trustees is expected to return next week. He was granted a leave of absence for ninety days and the time expires on the 12th inst.

R. B. BOWLER, controller of the treasury, has decided that the sugar bounty act is unconstitutional, and has referred the matter to the Court of Claims for adjudication.

THE Democrats of Utah in convention at Ogden yesterday declared in favor of the absolute separation of church and State, the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, and the granting of the franchise to women as provided in the constitution.

AN attempt was made yesterday in Paris to blow up Rothschild's bank. A man entered the building with a bomb under his arm and the fuse lighted. He was observed, seized and the fuse put out. It was a narrow escape and goes to show how daring the anarchists are.

Ozonized oxygen gas is now being administered to race horses, with remarkable good effect. It relieves distress in breathing, and gives an animal greater nerve strength. When Azote made the quick time of 2.05 1-2 he was treated with the gas before he went on the track, and between each of the three heats.

PROFESSOR CUNNINGHAM'S bill against the Frost estate at San Jose amounted to $736. It included $100 per day for testifying three days and $50 for making an analysis of the brain and other expenses bringing it up to the amount above. It seems to have astonished the executives of the estate.

GEORGE W. ROOT has been appointed Chief Wharfinger of the Harbor Commissioners vice James Boobar whose term of office has expired. It was thought by a good many of the knowing ones that Mr. Boobar would be reappointed and when it was learned that he would not be there was great joy among the water front people, for Boobar was not popular among the men who were under him. He made all with whom he came in contact acknowledge him. In fact the Presidency of the United States could not clothe himself with more dignity than Mr. Boobar. The new appointee, Mr. George W. Root, has been the assistant wharfinger, and is a thorough and capable man. He is a Native Son and is, of course, by virtue of that, broad and liberal minded, and received the hearty congratulations of his associates when he received his appointment.

GOING TOO FAR.

On Wednesday last a young physician and a young lady medical student, both of San Francisco, got astride their wheels and rode down to the ferry, where they embarked for Oakland. Arriving there they, with another young lady and gentleman, started for San Leandro, where they were married by a resident minister. This part of it is all right, but the fact that the bride was dressed in bloomers, as was the bridesmaid, while the groom and his best man were dressed in knickerbockers and sweaters, is all wrong, and we believe that the minister should have refused to marry the couple.

We do not object to bloomers for ladies who ride bicycles, in fact we favor them because it gives their limbs freedom of action, and there is less danger of accidents caused by skirts being caught in the wheels.

When it comes to walking along the street or going to church or to the theater in bloomers then it is time to call a halt, and especially when so sacred a thing as marriage is being performed, notoriety should be left out. The young lady could have carried a skirt with her to the parson's, which she could have slipped on over her bloomers and then stood up to be joined to the man of her choice with at least the modest appearance that one looks for when a wedding occurs.

Bloomers are all right in their place, but for street wear, balls and weddings, etc., they are entirely out of place and should be frowned down by all respectable men and women.

WITHIN a few weeks the question of voting $100,000 bonds for the erection and furnishing of a new high school will be submitted to the people. Quite a number of people express themselves as opposed to bonds, for the reason that taxes are altogether too high as it is. Another noticeable fact is that it is only the small property owners that object to the issuance of bonds. If these people would just stop for a moment and figure out how much extra taxes they would have to pay they would be ashamed of having ever expressed themselves as opposed to bonds. The great increase in taxes would amount to less than 60 cents on every thousand dollars worth of property. It will thus be seen that the small property owners will not be hurt as only a small part of their money will go into the high school. It is the large property owners that will have to pay the bulk of the taxes, and very few of them are complaining, because they know that the building of new schools in Berkeley means a higher valuation of their property and a better chance to sell it.

Nearly Killed by a Deer.

The literature of hunting is full of anecdotes which show the danger of a too hasty assumption that a wounded animal is dead or past the power of defending himself. A new illustration is furnished by Mr. Roosevelt in his "Ranch Life and the Hunting Trail."

Not only will a big, black tail buck beat off a dog or a wolf coming at him in front, but he is an awkward foe for a man. One of them nearly killed a cowboy in my employ.

The buck, mortally wounded, had fallen to the shot, and the man rushed up to kill him. Then the buck revived for a moment, struck down the man, and endeavored to gore him, but could not, because of the despairing grip with which the man held on to his horns.

Nevertheless the man, bristled and out by the sharp hoofs, was fast becoming too weak to keep his hold, when in the struggle the two came to the edge of a washout and fell into it some 12 or 15 feet. This separated them. The dying buck was too weak to renew the attack, and the man crawled off, but it was months before he got over the effects of the encounter.

A Disinfecting Perfume.

M. Villou of Paris has devised a method for disinfecting the sickroom by perfumes. He prepares special sachets capable of diffusing the perfume with which they are charged in any kind of a receptacle. All that is needed is to place two of these sachets in a receptacle containing a little water.

The perfume (essence of violet, rose, jasmine, etc.) is mixed with oxalacetic acid and inclosed in a sachet that is colored white. A second, colored blue, contains dry bicarbonate of soda. These substances mix when the sachets are soaked in water, liberating carbonic acid gas, which diffuses the perfume around the room. Sachets with oxygen as a basin can be prepared by placing powdered permanganate of potash in one and bismuthate of baryum in the other.

The medical writer says: "The process can be applied either in therapeutics or hygiene. The sachet has merely to be treated with medical essences or any volatile substance to set free a constant supply to saturate the atmosphere in which the patient lies."

The Smallest Land Grant.

What is beyond doubt the smallest body of land ever granted by the United States as a homestead is in Dado, the extreme southeastern county of the state of Florida, consisting of a small island in the north end of Lake Worth. This island is two rods less than one-fourth of an acre in extent, yet the claim for it was entered in the United States land office at Gainesville. Final proof was duly made, and the owner took possession. He is J. J. Haley of Rhode Island, and the island cost him $5.37—$5 for the entry fee and 87 cents for the land. The homestead is but a small sand pit, situated about one mile from the ocean, whose tide flows into the lake from an inlet about that distance from the island. Mr. Haley makes about $80 per month from his investment, as the island is just in the path of green and loggerhead turtles coming into the lake from the ocean to feed, and there he catches them.

Climbing Mont Blanc.

It is an expensive as well as a very tiresome undertaking to ascend Mont Blanc. It costs at least $50 per person, for by the law of the commune of Chamouni each stranger is obliged to have two guides and a porter. So far as the danger is concerned, it is now reduced to a minimum, but almost every year the mountaineers claim a victim. Bad weather is the chief thing feared by the guides, and so swiftly does it come that a cloudless sky may in 15 minutes turn to a blinding snowstorm, which beats you to the ground. Then it was that some years ago a party of 11 persons perished. Five were found frozen stiff in the snow. The other six still lie buried in the Glacier des Boissons. Forty years is the time allowed for the glacier to yield them up in the valley below.—Boston Transcript.

Frightened the Boy.

An amusing story is told of the meeting of the Epworth League at Chattanooga. One of the visiting members was entertained by a hospitable family and at dinner was asked to carve the chicken. For his own convenience he transferred the bird from the platter to his own plate, whereupon the young hopeful of the family, who had heard of the Methodist fondness for chicken and had been anxiously watching the proceedings, cried out to his mother, with tears in his voice, "He's going to take it all!" Explanations were made, and tranquility reigned again.—Exchange.

Not to Be Mentioned the Same Day.

"Well, Mrs. Jingle, it must be some satisfaction to you to have had your European trip at last, and from what you say you must have had fully as nice a time as your neighbor, Mrs. Rox."

"As nice? Why, my good woman, I'd have you to know that we spent $1,500 more in two months than they spent in six."—Richmond Dispatch.

His Last Resource.

Doctor—I really don't understand. There is no reason why you should go in for a reduction of corpulence.

Patient—Still, I want you to put me through a course of antifat treatment. My Enlalia shall see with her own eyes how I pine away for love of her.—Gartenlaube.

Some men make gain a fortune whence proceeds a stream of liberal and heroic deeds. The swell of pity not to be confined within the scanty limits of the mind disdains the bank and throws the golden sands, a rich deposit on the bordering lands.—Cowper.

You can get a very good idea of "natural selection" in its practical workings by viewing a colony of glass ants as it has been once round the table.

The Shattuck Fete.

Hundreds of people attended the lawn party given yesterday at the residence of F. K. Shattuck. Booths had been arranged in different parts of the ground where the visitor could be provided with whatever he or she might wish to purchase. Mrs. Cummings presided over the tea booth, while Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Biedenbach kept good track of the candy counter. Mrs. King and her fair daughters served sparkling lemonade to the thirsty. Mrs. Hatch and Miss Colby explained all about art, while Mrs. Boone and Miss State looked after the sale of fancy work and they were kept very busy.

A large number of ladies refrained from taking their meals at home and when the trains came in their husbands got off the train and went directly to the lawn, where they were served with a fine supper under the supervision of Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Barker.

In the evening the lawn was brilliantly lighted with incandescent lights and Chinese lanterns, and the different booths did a rushing business.

The Glee Club rendered some songs while the Piedmont band furnished good music.

It was a late hour before the lawn was deserted. The ladies netted about $500 on their entertainment.

The Liquor Ordinance.

In the case of the people vs. Frank J. O'Brien, which came up in Judge Ogden's Court at Oakland this morning an oral argument was made by Town Attorney Hayne, and the opposing counsel made but few remarks. Briefs were submitted to the Judge, who took the matter under advisement and will render a decision as soon as the case can be properly digested.

Many Berkeleyans were in attendance, as the case involves some very important points to the town of Berkeley. The decision will be awaited with more or less anxiety by all of the parties interested.

Nicely furnished rooms to let to a desirable gentleman. Everything is new, situated near the University and in a nice quiet part of town. All the comforts of a home. Inquire at our Berkeley office in Western Union Tel. Office. 86-1m

There is one thing in this world that in order to give satisfaction has got to be perfect, and that is a photograph. Naturally the artist who is thorough in his business and produces perfect pictures gets the trade. This accounts for the immense business done by Evans, the photographer at 1065 Washington street. He takes the finest cabinets in the land for $3 per dozen and has a large Berkeley patronage. 102

For Sale.—A No. 1 buggy, as good as new. Apply to T. J. Murray, corner of 8th street and University avenue. Price $30. 84 1m.

Notice I

The Oakland Gas Co. is advertising their gas to be used as a cheap fuel for cooking and heating, and for lighting purposes. But how much better it would be to have a small Imperial Gas Machine, and be your own banker and your neighbors' also. Furnish yourself with a beautiful, clear, steady light, and with fuel for cooking and heating purposes. See J. Scriber, Addison street, Berkeley, and he will tell you of the neighbors here who have them. 108

Whoa, Thar!

And step into Schmidt & Zehner's in the Shattuck Block and inspect those bread and cake knives that they sell for 50 cents. If you need any hardware, bird cages, pocket knives or tacks for bicycles. They have them. Call for anything in their line, and it will appear. 110

For Sale.—A fine pleasure boat capable of seating ten persons, rigged for sail or oars, will be sold cheap. Inquire of Mrs. Dutton, 7th street near Bancroft way. 97

If you want the best coal, the finest quality of hay and grain at the very lowest rates you must, of course, go to Ramos & Renas, the popular dealers whose place of business is on the corner of Eighth and Addison streets. 108

To the Ladies.

Merriam & Co., the well known grocers, and dealers in provisions, poultry and produce at 1229 and 1231 Broadway, Oakland, are now receiving a large amount of fine Hardwick nectarines from the celebrated orchard of Judge Stabler. This fruit is as large as a peach and is fine for canning or preserving. Goods delivered in Berkeley Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. 107

Prompt Payment.

I beg to acknowledge the prompt payment of $20, two weeks benefits due me from the International Indemnity Co., and paid to me on their behalf by Mr. E. C. Barclay, and I appreciate their prompt business methods.
